

Seven Public Art Bike/Walk/Run Loops

16 works of public art, 50+ parks, 49.5 miles total

All accesible via The Woodlands pathway network

Cochrans Crossing Loop – 7.1 miles

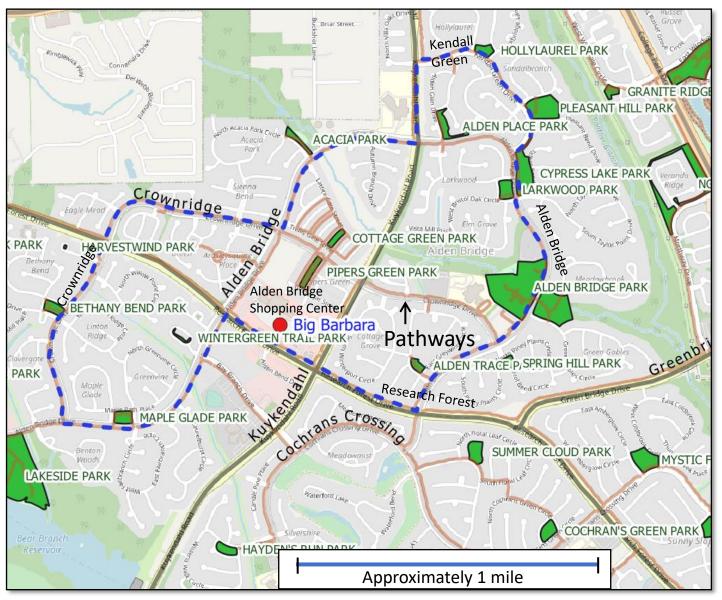

Alden Bridge Loop – 5.3 miles

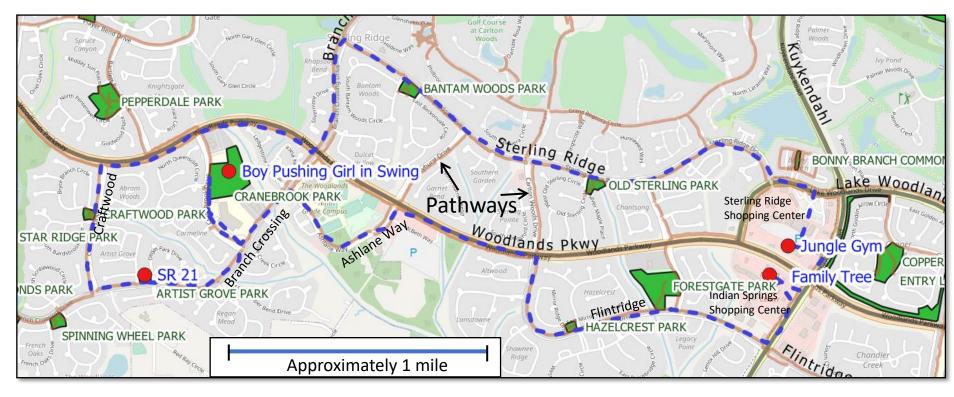

Indian Springs Loop— 7.7 miles

Sterling Ridge Loop- 8.5 miles

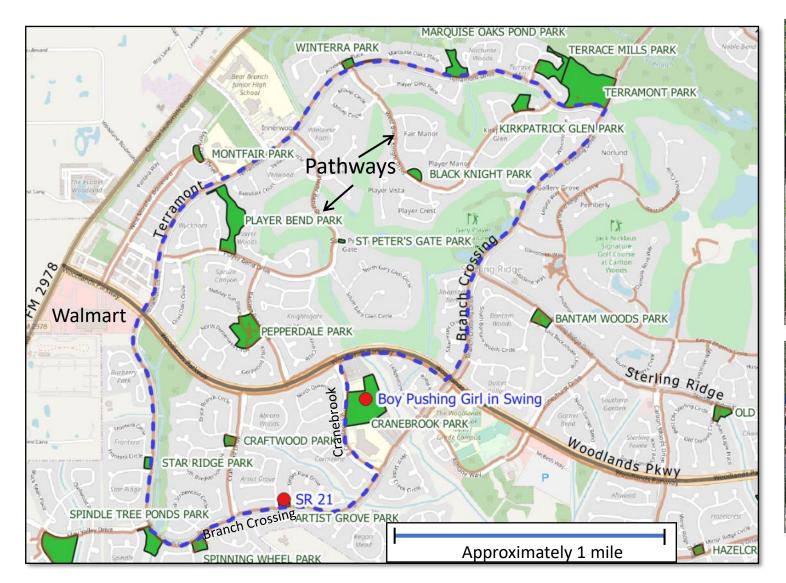

Terramont Loop— 6.3 miles

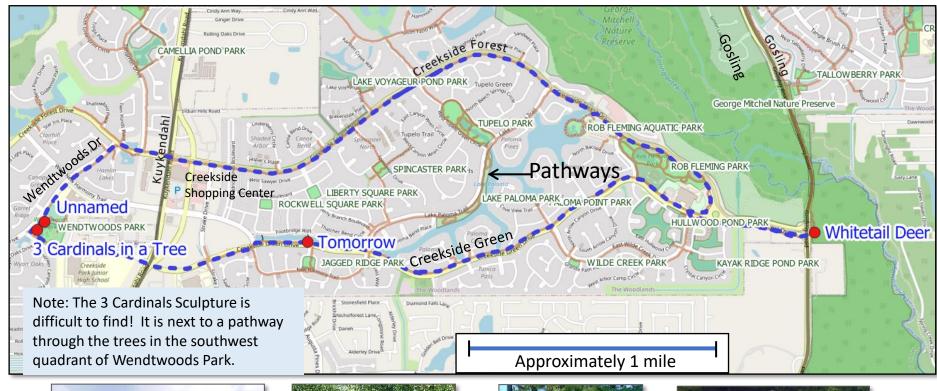

Creekside Loop – 8.2 miles

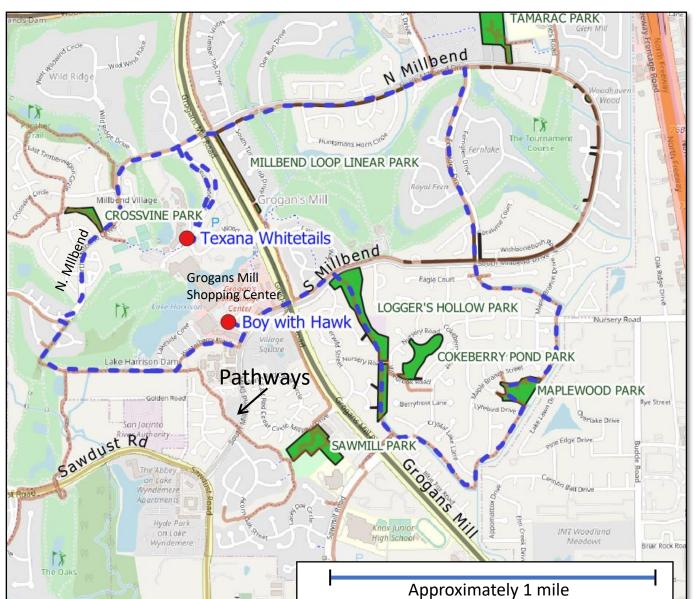

Grogans Mill Loop – 6.4 miles

How to enjoy these Public Art Loops

- These loops may be enjoyed by biking, walking, or running. Solo or in a group.
- Virtually all the public art can be enjoyed by riding on the pathways!
- For even more exercise, ride two or more loops.
- There are more than 50 parks on these loops – Take a few minutes to enjoy our fabulous parks!
- For a map of all pathways and parks in The Woodlands, check out the Parks and Pathways Map
- Check out this wonderful brochure about public art in The Woodlands Sculpture brochure

How to enjoy these Public Art Loops

BikeTheWoodlandsCoalition Grading a better community through bityding

Plan ahead!

- Use Google Maps on your phone the "Bicycling" option turned on. To show the pathways. You can also use an app like MapMyRide.
- Make sure your tires are pumped up and the brakes of your bike are adjusted.
- Adjusting your seat to the correct height will make riding easier
- Take water to drink
- Consider before 9am or after 5pm to avoid summertime sun.
- You are urged to wear a helmet when you bike! Staying safe is the best option for your family!
- Please obey laws stop at stop signs and stop lights. Be courteous to pedestrians and drivers. If riding on the shoulder, always ride with the traffic, not against traffic.

Support cycling in The Woodlands and Montgomery County

- Check out your local bike advocacy organization at BiketheWoodlands.org and on Facebook: BiketheWoodlands.
- Bike the Woodlands will be rolling out a membership option in 2020. Consider becoming a member to support "creating a better community through bicycling", which is the motto of Bike the Woodlands.

Some Details about the Public Art on these Rides

	Name of Work	Artist	Year	Location	Material	Dimensions
1	3 Cardinals in a Tree	Dale Rogers	2014	Wendtwoods Park	Steel	5.6 ft high
2	Big Barbara	Peter Reginato	1998	Alden Bridge Village Center	Steel	15 ft high, 2000 lbs
3	Boy Pushing Girl in Swing	Rabdolph Rose Collection	2003	Cranebrook Park	Bronze	9.3 ft high, 1200 lbs
4	Boy with Hawk	Charles Parks	1998	Grogan's Mill Village Center	Bronze	10 ft high, 1200 lbs
5	Children at Play	Clement Renzi	1984	Panther Creek Village Center	Bronze	9 ft high, 400 lbs
6	Excalibur	David Hayes	1984	Lake Woodlands Drive near Shadowbend Park	Steel	6.75 ft high, 700 lbs
7	Family Tree	Jane DeDecker	2004	Indian Springs Village Center	Bronze	8.2 ft high, 2800 lbs
8	Jungle Gym	Jane DeDecker	2001	Sterling Ridge Village Center	Bronze	9 ft high, 1200 lbs

5

Some Details about the Public Art on these Rides

	Name of Work	Artist	Year	Location	Material	Dimensions
9	Large Natural Form II	Richard Hunt	1977	Research Forest Drive near Bear Branch Park	Cor-ten steel	9.5 ft high x 20 ft long 2500 lbs
10	SR 21	2003 Art Students at John Cooper	2004	Artist Grove Park	Steel	7.5 ft high, 1100 lbs
11	Texana Whitetails	Edd Hayes	2002	The Woodlands Resort & Conference Center	Bronze	650 lbs
12	The Dreamer	David Phelps	1989	Woodlands Parkway median at West Panther Creek Drive	Lost wax metal casting	4ft high x 17 ft long
13	The Watch Owl	Mark Bradford	1993	Parks & Pathways Office on Millennium Forest Drive	Steel	23 ft high
14	Tomorrow	Charles Parks	1981	Creekside Green near Jagged Ridge Dr	Bronze	8 ft. high, 1200 lbs
15	Unnamed	Collaboration		Wendtwoods Park	Steel
16	Whitetail Deer	Edd Hayes		Gosling Road at the entrance to Creekside	Bronze

Public Art in The Woodlands

About 88 pieces total (including 20 Art Benches), 68 in or near the Town Center, and 20 in the Villages

Virtually all of the art is accessible via The Woodlands 200+ miles of pathways.

